

Perspective Project kick-off meeting

November 17, 2014

Program

Venue: Marijnenkamer, Faculty Club Huize Heyendaal, Radboud University Nijmegen

9:30–9:50	Corien Bary	opening
9:50–10:30	Max van Duijn and Arie Verhagen	The three dimensional nature of social cognition in discourse
10:30–11:10	Emar Maier	Narrator attraction: unquoting pronouns in direct and free indirect discourse
	break
11:30–11:50	Kees Thijs	Small words, big perspectives. Ancient Greek modal particles and perspective shifts
11:50–12:30	Markus Egg	t.b.a.
	lunch
13:20–14:00	Arjan Nijk	The historical present then and now
14:00–14:40	Daniel Altshuler	The importance of the historical present in semantic theorizing
	break
15:00–15:20	Leopold Hess	Evaluative expressions and perspective shifts
15:20–16:00	Hazel Pearson	On testing for de se/de re ambiguity across languages and expressions
	break
16:20–17:00	Rutger Allan	Subjectification in Ancient Greek. Some examples from tense, modality and parti- cles.
17:00–17:40	Dag Haug	The PROIEL corpus: annotation of mor- phology, syntax and information struc- ture
19:00	dinner	